

ICCON TAKES GHS/DDR TO SECONDARY SCHOOLS

As part of ICCON mandates of carrying out enlightenment campaigns on GHS/DDR, the Ag. Registrar/CEO, Bammodu, T.O. took this awareness campaign to secondary schools in Lagos State to educate and enlighten students on its meaning and the effect of its abuse.

Below are pictures from the event which featured the various schools in attendance;

PICTURE STORY OF IKORODU EVENT

Ag. Registrar/CEO of ICCON, T.O. Bammodu delivering her welcome address.

Representative of the Hon. Minister of Health, Dr. M.C. Maha.

Some students queue up to participate in a view-sharing forum during the seminar.

Students from different schools in Ikorodu Zone sharing their Impressions of the seminar after the presentations.

Dr. Maha fielding questions from newsmen after delivering the Minister's speech.

PHOTO CLIPS FROM AMUWO ODOFIN EVENT

Ag. Registrar/CEO of ICCON, T.O. Bammodu delivering her opening speech

ICCON Ag Registrar (2nd right) & the Representative of the Commissioner of Education Lagos State, Mr. Obatula.

Presentation by Mr Elochukwu Okonkwo, a Staff of ICCON

A cross section of students at the programme

Mr. Okey Modebe (Resources Person), making his presentation